U.S. Military Superiority on Increase, Pentagon States

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara permitted use of intelligence estimates to challenge Gen. Curtis E. LeMay because he wanted to kill at birth any myth about declining U.S. military superiority.

This was learned from defense officials today as the gulf widened between the strong-willed defense secretary and the equally strong-minded Air Force chief of staff.

Late Tuesday the Pentagon issued a statement stressing "the increasing military superiority of the United States." It came after publication of LeMay's February congressional testimony contending the Russians are narrowing the gap.

One high official familiar with McNamara's thinking said the defense secretary feels it is "dangerous to raise any doubts about our strength."

"He thinks it would be wrong to sit by and allow creation of a myth—and it is a myth in his judgment—that there is any lessening of our strength," this official said.

The Defense Department statement did not name LeMay. Authorities would not acknowledge it was aimed at the controversial Air Force chief of staff, who feels McNamara is placing too much reliance on missiles and waving the manned bomber to the sidelines too early. Officials noted that there had been a spate of criticisms, including a new defense strategy paper spelling out the views of one of McNamara's strongest foes, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona.

But Goldwater's paper dwelt mostly on the issue of missile reliability—which plunged him into collision with McNamara early in Goldwater's quest for the Republican presidential nomination. The senator is an Air Force Reserve major general.

Instead, the Pentagon blast was aimed clearly at disputing questions raised "regarding the magnitude of our superiority and whether it is continuing to grow." LeMay's published testimony raised those questions.

Officials would neither confirm nor deny whether McNamara had initiated the statement, which was issued in the name of the Defense Department.

But they said it would not have come out "without the approval or knowledge of the secretary."

And this approval and knowledge would have applied to its contents—more specific intelligence information about relative U.S.-Soviet strengths than is normally allowed out by the Pentagon.

Asked why this data was being released now, a spokesman said, "These decisions are made in government from time to time."

To support its declaration that our superiority "has been increasing and we intend that it shall continue to increase," the Pentagon disclosed that:

—The United States has 540 strategic bombers constantly on alert and that the Soviets "could place over this country, on two-way missions," no more than 270 bombers, including 150 mediums that could hit only

Castello Branco Inaugurated

Succeeds Goulart As Brazil President

BRASILIA, Brazil (AP) — A new chapter, possibly one of the most significant in Brazil's recent political history, opens today with the inauguration of Gen. Humberto Castello Branco as president.

How strong a hand the military will take in running the country and the prospects for political peace should be determined during the 21 months the 64-year-old former army chief of staff heads the interim government.

The military leaders of the anti-Communist coup that overthrew President Joao Goulart have promised elections for a new president in October 1965, when Goulart's successor would have been chosen.

There was a marked lack of interest in non-official circles as authorities completed preparations for the inauguration.

No flags or banners flew in Brasilia's business district. Residents of the capital seemed to go about their tasks totally indifferent to the event.

Basically, Castello Branco's regime is intended to provide a transition from military back to civilian control. But his decisions could chart the course of the ailing nation.

The extent of military influence is expected to become apparent early. The composition of Castello Branco's Cabinet also should determine the degree of ultra-conservative sentiment in the government.

All this will undoubtedly determine the reaction of the size of the military.

Industrial Payroll Gains In 1st Quarter

Industrial pay in the city for the first three months of 1964 is $71,535.76 above the total for the same period in 1963, according to figures compiled by the Salem Area Chamber of Commerce.

The figure for the first quarter of this year is $5,029,777.39 while the comparable 1963 report is $4,958,241.63.

Big jumps in the pay during January and February offset a decrease in March over March of '63. Last month industry paid $1,509,630.19 in wages compared to $4,958,241.63 in March of last year.

February's total this year was $1,643,496.15 and January's $1,855,651.05 compared to $1,724,666.66 and $1,470,544.71 for the same months, respectively, in 1963.

GRASS FIRES CHECKED

Two grass fires were extinguished by city firemen Tuesday. At 2:30 p.m. they put out a blaze at the rear of 990 New Garden Ave. and at 6:42 p.m. they answered a call on Rt. 14, about two miles west of the city where grass was burning along the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks. There was no damage.

Percy Gets GOP Governor Nod

Barry Wins Illinois Primary; Mrs. Smith Polls Big Vote

CHICAGO (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater's victory in the Illinois presidential preference primary shared interest today with a surprising show of strength by Sen. Margaret Chase Smith.

Charles H. Percy, who stepped into a president's post in industry at 29, captured the Republican nomination for governor at the age of 44.

Returns from Tuesday's primary gave these percentages of the preference vote: Goldwater 63, Mrs. Smith 26, Henry Cabot Lodge 6 and Richard M. Nixon 3, with the remainder split up among several others.

Sen. Smith, of Maine, came into the Illinois test after Goldwater had entered. She wanted, she said, to give the voters a choice.

Both traveled to Illinois twice during the campaign. The Arizona senator spoke Friday to 10,000 at a rally in the International Amphitheatre.

The lady from Maine was in the state at the same time. As on her previous weekend visit, she quickly made the rounds at colleges and small gatherings.

Her display of vote-pulling power was unexpected, too, when viewed in the light of her finish as a poor fifth in the March 10 primary in her neighboring state of New Hampshire.

Only the names 6th grad 126 Only the names of Sen. Goldwater and Sen. Smith were printed on the Republican ballots. Others scored by the write-in method on both party ballots,

Belgian Doctor Crisis Worsens

Emergency Setup Reported Collapsing

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — The seriously ill have been getting adequate treatment or better since the 15-day-old doctors' strike began, but those with minor ailments have to shift for themselves.

With most of Belgium's 10,000 doctors on strike against a new medical insurance law, there was general apprehension that many patients would die untreated.

Urgent cases on the whole have been taken care of under an emergency setup organized by the physicians and taken over three days ago by the government.

Premier Theo Lefevre's government issued a decree Sunday calling for mobilization of 3,600 army reserve doctors, and requisitioning civilian doctors attached to hospitals. It says it

Declares Mao Has Bungled Economy

Nikita Takes Another Swipe at Red Chinese

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev declared today the Chinese Communists "have created serious difficulties for the world Communist movement and placed it on the verge of a split."

At the same time, in a speech to a Polish-Russian friendship meeting in the Kremlin, he demanded a solution of the German question on the old Soviet basis — a peace treaty that would make West Berlin a "free city."

Speaking with rapid gestures, often smiling, talking very fast, the premier declared the Chinese are urging a revolutionary course which would lead to war. Khrushchev said the Soviet system of advancing through economic competition was a better system than that of China.

"They say we are the revisionists," he declared, "but I ask, what do their people want — war or rice? I think they want rice."

He scoffed at the Chinese policy as likely to pose the question of whether the Soviet Union for instance, should make war on France in order to put the French workers into power.

"Who would die in that war?" he demanded. "Imperialists? No. The same working people would die as would die in China."

W. Branch Board To Hire Teachers

The West Branch School District Board of Education at its regular session Tuesday night voted to hold a special meeting April 28 to prepare a list of teachers whose contracts will or will not be renewed for the 1964-65 year.

Executive head Clinton Heacock was authorized by the board to take steps to fill any vacancies that arise in the teaching staff. Two teachers have resigned so far. They are Mrs. Florence Ruggles of Berlin Center, Goshen Center elementary teacher, and Mrs. Sue Stroup of Alliance, girls' physical education instructor.

The board at the special session is also expected to employ basketball and football coaches to replace Joe Tucker and Ron Deirks who quit their coaching jobs but remained on the staff.

The board also authorized the hiring of school enumerators to take the census before May 30, the deadline. The enumerators will be paid 10 cents a name, the board agreed, the same as last year.

The census takers will also distribute questionnaires to dis-

Two Persons Slightly Hurt In Accidents

A New Waterford woman and a Mahoning county clergyman were slightly injured in two of three district traffic mishaps Tuesday.

Mrs. Dorothy Rupert, 31, of New Waterford suffered a neck whiplash and Rev. Carl J. For-gach, 29, of Youngstown received a cut lip and mouth. Both were treated by local doctors.

Mrs. Rupert was hurt in a two-vehicle mishap at 1:50 p.m. on Route 46 in New Waterford. The Lisbon post of the State Highway Patrol said she was slowing her car to make a right turn when a pickup truck operated by Chester G. Csonot, 43, of RD. Columbiana, came up from behind and struck the car in the left rear corner after his brakes failed. Csonot was not cited.

LBJ Gets Rail Talks Report

Emergency Parleys Held for 5 Days

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson gets a report today on the last-ditch railroad bargaining talks he arranged in an effort to avert a nationwide strike.

Johnson will hear from federal mediators what was originally scheduled as a report on "the progress and the effectiveness" of the first five days of the emergency talks following a 15-day strike postponement.

A highly cautious White House spokesman Tuesday refrained from even referring to it as a "progress" report.

"There is nothing thus far that in any way could be characterized as either progress or a set-back," he said.

The White House went to considerable pains to deny published reports that the talks could be described as optimistic.

"To characterize what is happening either in terms of optimism or pessimism is a disservice not only to the negotiations themselves but to accurate reporting," the spokesman said.

No specific time was set for the mediators' report to Johnson but most of the President's official morning schedule was routine and there was a big gap between 12:30 p.m. and 4:30 p.m.

This led to speculation that the mediators, headed by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, might make their report sometime in the early afternoon.

"I want to make it clear that I do not know whether . . . the mediators will be able to say that progress has been made in the sense of 'we have moved within 10 feet of a solution' or 'we have moved within 13 feet of a solution,'" the spokesman said.

"I have no idea in the world, and I don't think the mediators Elected were: Mrs. John Ward, New Garden; Mrs. Robert Ward and Franklin Henderson, Salem RD 3; Charles Hansen and Wilford Mountz, Salem RD 2.

The organization is dedicated to securing a doctor for the Winona area.

Mrs. Willard Cope, Salem RD 3, read a request for information made by Dr. Ramon L. Marques, 37, of North Kingston, R.I., who will come to Ohio in May to establish a practice.

The Rev. Robert Goodwin of the Sec. 1 Day Adventist church, East Liverpool, said he would refer the association's desire to secure a doctor to interns at the Adventist Hospital and Medical Center in Maryland.

Dinsio, Pals Lose Appeal

Face Extradition On Robbery Charge

The Ohio Supreme Court unanimously dismissed today the appeals of Amil Dinsio, 26, of Poland, and two Austintown men from orders for extradition to Weirton, W. Va., in connection with the robbery of a coin collector.

Dinsio, who is currently in prison, Daniel Marshall, 33, and Harold Dailey, 32, were under charges of possessing burglary tools in Columbiana County when their extradition was sought last year following the robbery of Gene A. Costalas, who also operates a firm supplying coin-operated machines.

The trio was arrested at the Turkey Run Inn parking lot, east of Columbiana, on the night of the robbery March 28. Columbiana and Mahoning county deputies waited all night at the Rt. 14 restaurant and seized the three as they returned about 3:15 a.m. in Dailey's convertible.

In the car they found two pistols, several cigar boxes filled with rolls of coins and several coin albums containing coins. Costalas, 67, subsequently identified the coins as having been taken from him.

The three suspects brought habeas corpus actions in an effort to remain in Ohio but lower courts turned them down and they appealed to the high court. Sentence in Pittsburgh

Dinsio and his brother, James, 33, of Poland were sentenced to 3-6 years in Western State Penitentiary in Pennsylvania March 10 for the burglary of the Power Tool Supply Co. in Pittsburgh Jan. 9, 1963.

The brothers and Daniel Boscia, 40, of Pittsburgh pleaded guilty to the charge in Allegheny County Court in Pittsburgh. Boscia was given five years' probation.

Wrote Controversial 'Silent Spring'

Author Rachel Carson Succumbs to Cancer

SILVER SPRING, Md. (AP) — Death by cancer has silenced Rachel Carson whose book "Silent Spring" created international controversy with its charge that man was poisoning the earth and himself by his efforts to control nature with chemicals.

Miss Carson, 56, a biologist who became a best selling author in 1951 with "The Sea Around Us," died Tuesday afternoon at her home. She learned five years ago, apparently while working on "Silent Spring," that she had cancer.

Her book helped inspire a White House report last May calling for stronger federal laws on pesticides and new steps regulate their control.

The book warned of the dangers of tampering with the balance of nature and argued for biological controls rather than massive and indiscriminate use of chemicals, such as pesticides and weed killers.

She wrote: "These sprays, dusts, and aerosols are now applied almost universally to farms, gardens, forests and homes — nonselective chemicals that have the power to kill every insect, the 'good' and the 'bad,' to still the song of birds Named defendants in the suits filed Tuesday in U.S. District Court here were attorney Paul H. Smith, administrator of the estate of Sylvia E. Sanker, driver of the car and one of those killed, and the New York, Chicago & St. Louis Railroad.

The plaintiffs, each seeking $50,000 damages, are the parents of Darlene Muzenic, 21, Sandra Ann Van Sack, 18, Barbara Cowan, 19, and Jennie Angelo, 21. The girls were killed while on their way home from a summer outing at Geneva-on-the-Lake.

The plaintiffs alleged Miss Sanker drove the automobile onto the tracks without ascertaining the presence of the train and failed to heed the flashing light signals.

They charged that "structures" in the railroad's right-way obstructed the view of those driving over the tracks and that the train was traveling at dangerous rate of speed.

Vegetable Lentil Stew Is Tasty

Entertaining a crowd with a big kettle of hearty soup as a main course has become very popular with teen-aers and young marrieds.

It's more unusual than a casserole, and with plenty of "go-with-its" your guests will feel well-fed. For instance, serve hot garlic or French bread or a loaf of bake-and-serve cheese or onion bread.

Of course, you'll serve relishes — herkins or dills, olives, celery and perhaps raw cauliflower flowerettes. If, like so many young couples, you are both employed, you will probably want to buy dessert ready-made.

If you have a bit more time to bake, one of the unusual cake mixes, such as moist pineapple, toffee swirl, apple raisin or butterscotch won't take long. The cake can be served warm, topped with ice cream and a choice of sauce.

VEGETABLE LENTIL STEW

One pint (1 lb.) dried lentils, 3 pints boiling water, ¼ cup fat, 1 cup finely diced onion, 1 pint finely diced celery, 1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce, 2 beef bouillon cubes, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 tablespoon salt, ¼ cup catsup, 2 teaspoons kitchen bouquet, 1 cup finely diced potatoes, 1 pint finely diced carrots, 1 pound frankfurters.

Rinse lentils in cold water and drain them. Add lentils to boiling water and simmer 45 minutes.

Meanwhile, melt fat in Dutch oven over moderate heat. Add onion and celery. Let cook about 5 minutes, stirring occasionally.

Drain cooked lentils and measure liquid, then add enough water to lentil water to make 8 cups of liquid. Add this to celery-onion mixture and stir in tomato sauce, bouillon cubes, salt, sugar, catsup and kitchen bouquet.

Cover and bring water to a boil. Add potatoes, carrots and frankfurters which have been cut in ¼ inch slices.

Bring to boil again, then lower heat and cook, covered, until vegetables are tender, about 20 minutes. Add more salt or seasonings if desired. Let stand over low heat 30-45 minutes more for stew to blend flavors. Makes 10-12 servings.

LATTICE-CRUST FRESH RHUBARB PIE

Pastry for 2-crust, 9-inch pie, 5 cups (1½ pounds) diced fresh rhubarb, 1¼ cups sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 teaspoon grated lemon peel.

Line a 9-inch pie plate with pastry rolled to ¼-inch thickness. Combine remaining ingredients. Turn into the pastry-lined pie plate. Roll remaining pastry ¼-inch thick. Cut into strips ½-inch wide and arrange over top of pie in lattice fashion.

Bake in a pre-heated very hot oven (450 degrees) 15 minutes. Reduce heat to moderate (350 degrees) and bake 30 minutes or until rhubarb is tender and the crust is brown.

Who Administers Prices?

Allegations of price-fixing against eight major steel companies, including Republic Steel, and two steel industry executives will start to unroll a ball of legal red tape that will keep a bevy of lawyers busy the rest of his decade.

It is easy to sympathize with Republic steel industry's efforts "to save the jobs of American steel workers and the investments of American stockholders" now are going to be handicapped by the necessity of answering government charges about things which allegedly happened from three to nine years ago.

THE QUIET TRUTH of the matter is that the American public neither understands nor supports what the government is trying to do in these cases.

Ostensibly, it is trying to keep powerful industrial combines from administering prices, in violation of federal laws requiring enterprise to live and die by the law of supply and demand.

But since these federal laws were enacted two generations ago, labor unions have been permitted to administer wage scales. Government collects uniformly punitive taxes. Raw materials and services tend to follow along on the same price levels. Competition, itself, is uniform.

Even if manufacturers in the same industry never "stepped across the street" to see what their competitor was charging — even if competitors never posted their prices for all the world to see — prices would be closely similar in all cases and identical in some.

IT IS UP TO the government to prove the facts of the price-fixing conspiracy it says occurred.

It can convict no one on the circumstantial evidence that prices were similar.

And while the government is undertaking to do this and the defendants are trying to keep the government from proving its case, skeptics among us may wonder whether prices actually paid for carbon steel sheets were as "administered" as posted figures made them seem to be.

The Campus Crush Worsens

Colleges of the Ivy League mail out acceptance notices today. A week later the "Seven Sister" women's colleges do likewise. By the end of the first week in May, almost all college admissions applicants will know their fate.

Boys and girls born in 1945 and 1946 are ready for college this year. Applications for the class of 1968 are up 32 per cent. About half of this June's 2.3 million high school graduates will go to college. Next year will see 2.55 million graduated from secondary school, with 50 per cent or more going on to school.

The accepted estimate is that college enrollment will double in the decade ending in 1970. The bulk of the increase will come in 1964 and 1965.

Admissions pressure remains steady on Ivy League colleges—Harvard, Princeton, Yale, Dartmouth, Brown, Columbia, Cornell, and the University of Pennsylvania.

Springtime In Washington

Some of us can remember when Calvin Coolidge, as dour a man as ever lived in the White House, used to play hide-and-seek with Secret Service men.

We can remember when Herbert Hoover lined up friends and associates and made them share his delight in banging a medicine ball into one another's midriffs.

We have had the Roosevelt grandchildren, the Truman piano playing, Mamie Eisenhower's bridge companions and the Kennedy children. We had been waiting for proof that the Johnsons, too, would learn to feel at home in the presidential eventually.

WE HADN'T been sure about them. There was evidence that President and Mrs. Johnson preferred their ranch in Texas because only there did they feel at ease.

But last Friday, the President so obviously was having a ball being the occupant of the White House that everybody felt better. It is important to the confidence his country men that whoever is in the White House should seem to be easy about his situation—not tense, not caged up, not jittery.

The American people want their chief executive and his family to be natural. They think this is the best assurance of rationality the nation can ask for. It's why they felt good about the Kennedy children; no chief executive could go far wrong with his own children playing at his feet.

SPRING HAS COME to Washington. This was the big weekend of the Japanese cherry blossoms.

It's reassuring to know that the President and his lady are relaxed enough in the positions of trust thrust them into last Nov. 22 to pick up their heels and feel springlike—like all the rest of us. It was a hard winter.

No Help Needed

Based on the performance of some of his predecessors who were quite occupied with the duties of city solicitor, Thomas Coe, the city's present solicitor, does not need an assistant.

City Council, at its recent meeting, introduced an ordinance that would permit Coe to hire a full or parttime assistant to assist the solicitor in carrying out his duties.

We're sure the solicitor is capable of handling the municipality's legal matters by himself, or he wouldn't have run for the office.

Real Life, Bah!

All of us who sit in front of gawk boxes are being exposed to a new dodge in audio-visual advertising.

The spieles are standing aside while personal testimony about the products is given by real-life users of the products being pushed.

In contrast with the kind of people who used to give testimonials in glossy magazines—the upper "clawes"—ad agencies now are using ordinary lump-heads like the rest of us.

Except they are letting their contempt show through by picking people who look even uglier than we do, who talk through their noses, chew their words and in general convey the impression they aren't bright.

We don't understand this psychology. We are sure what they are trying to do is set up a common identity between us and the kind of people using the product on the TV screen.

Where the psychology says is to think we viewers in TV-land will jump at a chance to use something because some lump-head who looks and sounds worse than we do has been conned into using it. That's not the way it works.

We don't care what motivational experts and mass marketers may say; the human mind never works that way.

During the many years that Leo Holloway was a stalwart citizen of Columbiana, that community felt his presence in many avenues of civic service.

He had served on the board of education, both as a member and clerk, was an outstanding merchant and member of the Columbiana Chamber of Commerce, and a Rotarian who exemplified the club's motto of "service above self" at all times.

and the Kallikaks, whose symbols of inbred inferiority we studied about when exposed to higher learning.

WE LOOK at the gawk-box to escape from reality, by being cowboys, super-sleuths and glamor pots. Then, when we are ready to flutter over the rainbow on goassamer wings, free as birds, with all our brain tumors removed and our tawdry lives transmogrified into one long gallop into the sunset a creep with adeoids and crooked teeth comes on the tube and urges us to use some sponsor's gunk.

Huh-uh. Not even if it's free we don't want to use it—not if that's the kind of pointy-heads who fall for the pitch.

What we want is the gunk that Lady Forderol Kneerjerk of Trauma on the Couch uses in the great hall of her ancestral estate. We don't give two short hoots in the broom closet what Andy Smith's ugly missus uses.

WHAT WE'RE trying to do, see, is lift ourselves up by our own foundation garments. We want to be something better than we are.

We don't want to be like the other people on our street.

Like the guy gets the girl, see. Not like the guy gets the gate, the way it is in real life. Real life we got plenty of without television to rub it in.

No Cooperation

U.S. Reds 'In the Black'

By VICTOR RIESEL

America's "Reds" are in the black. The Communist party, U. S. A., is being steadily re-financed, so it can launch, in coming months, coast-to-coast political, industrial and youth action programs, to exploit the "goulash" phase of the Cold War.

This now is Communist vernacular for the alleged "beef - no bullets" posture taken by N. S. Khrushchev during his Hungarian visit.

To exploit the supposed thaw in the Cold War, Communist party leader, Gus Hall, summoned his national committee to New York last week. For four days it met secretly at 23 West 26th St. to thrash out specific policies.

The Party's chief concern was its position in the coming presidential election. Party leaders, confident that they have beaten government anti-subversive action in the high federal courts, are now considering running a presidential candidate of their own.

THEY ARE sophisticated and realize they would poll an infinite small vote compared with the major party candidates. But even a few hundred thousand ballots would make them an important force in the network of world Communist organizations.

Such a nomination would not be their lone political venture. They discussed the naming of local candidates who might poll thousands of votes each. As is the practice among splinter parties, the Communists would then total all votes cast for them across the land. They could come up with a sizable amount for an organization which has been found legally to be dominated by the Soviet Union.

Such electoral efforts would have to be made in industrial areas. Therefore, the 12 national committee people summed by Hall were from the big cities—Los Angeles, San Francisco, Chicago, Buffalo and Philadelphia.

APPARENTLY cross-country travel expenses are readily available to the Communist chiefs.

While in New York, some of them stayed at the Chelsea Hotel on West 23rd st on arrival there early last week, they bear-hugged each other in Khrushchev - Castro fashion and then proceeded to small caucuses.

Among the party's advisers are Harry Winston; Chicago's Claude Lightfoot; Irving Potash, who is in this country illegally; Daniel Rubin, youth leader and Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, the American Communists' "grand dame."

High on the agenda was their college youth program. In the last few years, party leaders have spoken to hundreds of thousands of college students on their campuses.

Now the party wants to intensify its university lecture program in general and concentrate on Southern schools in particular.

THE NATIONAL committee people also reviewed their industrial infiltration program. They discussed their basic "troika" move — on the steel, railroad and mining areas. To this they added the automobile industry.

The party still controls national and local unions, with a total membership of 324,000 in strategic installations.

There also is concern in high party ranks over the efforts of the Chinese Communists to create an apparat inside the U. S.

This concern is not exactly inspired by worry over this nation's security. It is prompted by the fact that the Communist party, U.S.A., is strictly a Soviet front and, therefore, rigidly anti-Peking.

The Chinese Communist party and its proprietor, the Peking government, still have virtually no base inside the U.S. Mao Tse-tung's agents assigned to the U. S. now operate out of Cuban and Mexican headquarters, because there is easy passage between Havana and Mexico City, from which there is relative simple access to North America.

WITHOUT ASSISTANCE from the "goulash" parties' apparats and Soviet bloc diplomatic machinery, the Communist Chinese have no intelligence or sabotage organization in our country. But they are trying to create one by working through their own ethnic groups, according to FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

Mainland Chinese scientists are trying to make contact with Chinese-American students and scientists, on the one hand, while the Chinese narcotics apparatus works through drug pushers in the West and Castroite Cuban smugglers on the East Coast.

This distrubs the American Communist leaders since they want no rivals splitting their movement as the mainland Chinese have split Communist movements abroad. So the party, as well as U. S. intelligence forces, keeps its eye on this infiltration.

All this takes manpower and money. They have plenty of both. How are they financed? There are many ways.

In New York City, for example, there is a multi-millionaire Communist. He owns a hotel, clothing interests, liquor outlets and big chunks of real estate. He was put into business long ago by the apparat.

It is simple to siphon off funds for party work. And that's exactly what is happening as they prepare for their nationwide 1964 May Day celebrations.

'Crossover' Vote Looms Large

By DAVID LAWRENCE

It looks as if the "crossover" vote will decide the next presidential election. There are many Republicans who would like Lyndon Johnson to remain as president rather than vote for any other candidate mentioned thus far. Also, there are Democrats who would vote for anyone nominated for president at the Republican convention if Robert Kennedy is the vice presidential nominee on the Democratic ticket.

Conversely, many Republicans who wouldn't vote for a Democrat for president under most circumstances would cross over and do so if Attorney General Kennedy is the vice-presidential nominee.

The pollsters can readily find out the trend by phrasing a particular set of questions to bring out the true proportions of the "crossover" vote. Separate queries might be directed only to those citizens who consider themselves Republicans.

HERE ARE some of the pertinent questions:

1. As between Scranton and Johnson, how would you vote?
2. As between Lodge and Johnson, how would you vote?
3. As between Rockefeller and Johnson, how would you vote?
4. As between Nixon and Johnson, how would you vote?
5. As between Goldwater and Johnson, how would you vote?

The same Republicans might be asked:

"If Robert Kennedy is the vice presidential nominee, would you vote for the Johnson ticket?"

The pollsters wouldn't be through at that point, because there would surely be a "crossover" vote from the Democratic ticket. Another question, addressed only to Democrats, would be the following:

"If Robert Kennedy were the vice presidential nominee, would you vote for any Republican nominee or stay at home or vote for the Democratic ticket just the same?"

On the Republican side, there is obviously at the present time no majority favoring any prospective Republican nominee. The polls as well as the state primary voting thus far indicate that the party is split several ways.

The votes for Lodge, for example, have been construed by many observers not as necessarily manifesting any outburst of enthusiasm for the present American ambassador to Viet Nam but rather a dissatisfaction with all the others prominently mentioned for the nomination.

THERE IS, moreover, plenty of evidence that there is an anti-Goldwater sentiment and an anti-Rockefeller attitude. Groups holding these viewpoints seem to prefer Scranton or Nixon or Lodge.

Some of the feelings are so deep-rooted that, if the particular individual to whom they object were nominated, it is a safe assumption that a Johnson-Humphrey ticket, for example, would get a very substantial number of such Republicans.

As a matter of fact, many Republicans say frankly that, if the nomination doesn't go to Goldwater — who, they think, articulates a real opposition to the policies of the Kennedy-Johnson administration — they would rather vote for a Johnson-Humphrey ticket or stay at home on Election Day.

Between now and the Republican convention in San Francisco in July, the aspirants for the Republican nomination may become more challenging in their speeches of criticism and win votes by the specific points they make.

To date there has been little den made by the speeches of the Republican candidates, with the exception of Goldwater. He, however, has managed to alienate that segment of the Republican party which has often been termed as "Me-Too Republicanism."

Whether it is in the domain of foreign or domestic policies, the Republicans in general have waged a weak campaign. Certainly the potential candidates have not as yet produced that mood among the voters which would indicate a readiness to change administrations no matter which Republican is nominated.

A DARK HORSE or a so-called compromise candidate who hasn't been active in seeking the nomination normally has little chance to win if the country is relatively satisfied with the incumbent administration.

Candidates who have centered their attention on a specific issue which involves national discontent usually have the best chance of winning a nomination and a subsequent election. To date none of the Republicans candidates has made a persuasive case for a change of administration, and each appears to be merely reflecting a personal ambition for high office whether he happens to be an active candidate or is slyly acquiescing in the "draft" idea.

Nobody at this time can be sure of the extent of the "crossover" vote or the depth of any national discontent, and the election campaign this year could conceivably be one in which the opposition to "civil rights," for instance, in the North and South could defeat a Johnson-Kennedy ticket.

The reaction of the country will not be known until after this legislation is passed, which may not be until just before the national conventions are held.

Matter of Fact

In feudal days the type of serf called a villain was also considered an "adscript of the soil" since he could be sold or transferred along with a plot of ground.

The American robin is really a North American thrush; the English robin is the true robin redbreast, being only half the size of the American type and having reddish-orange breast and forehead, brownish-olive upper parts and a white abdomen.

The cony or coney is a name originally applied to the rabbit, and still sometimes used for it, notably in the fur trade. The cony of the old world and of the Bible is a different animal altogether, a huffed mammal better named the hyrax.

The English legendary hero Robin Hood is first mentioned in Piers Plowman, about 1377. To the English populace at the close of the Middle Ages, Robin Hood was the ideal yeoman as knight.

Geologists believe that the vast expanse of salty clay comprising the salt flats at Bonneville, Utah, is the bed of a large body of fresh water, whose waters evaporated long ago. The flats are used as a speed course for automobiles.

Views Of Our Readers

Lauds MacArthur

His own country and the world owes so much to General Douglas MacArthur and the Salem News has paid wonderful tribute to a wonderful man so it is hard to know why Hearst and Scripps-Howard newspapers should dig up articles written so many years ago and try to darken his memory now that his long life is finished.

Did any conqueror ever do as much for a banquished country as MacArthur did for Japan and so completely turn it into a real friend as he did to win Japan a friend of the United States?

And Korea would have been a better country today if MacArthur could have won the victory there.

Let us honor the memory of a great man.

Fishermen Complain

This is a letter in protest to the handling, or mishandling, of the fishing facilities at the Salem City Reservoir. The management is discourteous and uncooperative.

This is what we fishermen put up with: For example, on April 4 several of us were fishing from the wall, and on April 5 there was quite a line-up. The manager was over several times to check, in his speedboat, with no regard to us. Monday, however, four of us were fishing off the wall where at least 30 were on Sunday. Two of our group were arrested by Manager Pete Harker who said, "no fishing from the wall."

We do pay our city income tax, sewage tax, etc.

On Monday the Harker's son came over to the dock, which, incidentally, costs 50 cents extra to fish from, in addition to your season pass or daily permit, and started to pound away with a hammer. One of the fishermen jokingly said, "why didn't you bring a sledge hammer, you could make more noise", to which he replied "Don't come down here fishing any more".

We think it is a disgrace to have such a fine fishing lake under such poor management.

The 'Take-Over' In Brazil

It seems to me that most Americans cannot be happy about the recent events in Brazil. This I say in spite of the fact that official Washington is quoted as being quite pleased with the happenings in that poverty-stricken land.

Brazil is a vast country, larger than continental United States.

Eighty per cent of the arable and pasture land is owned by two per cent of the population. Diseases are widespread, especially among the most impoverished. In the rural areas, 90 per cent of the population is illiterate.

Brazil has the beginnings of modern industry, but its transportation system however, is very poor. It seems that the Goulart government had threatened to nationalize and reorganize the archaic railroad complex and make it better. Goulart and his associates had also promised to distribute considerable of the idle lands to the peasants or campesinos and to extend the voting privilege to some 20 millions of them. To extend the educational system to these poor people was also on the program.

How could any person of good will disagree with these measures? Yet for daring to undertake such a radical course, this government was overthrown and its leaders thrown into jail or forced to flee by a military junta consisting of a handful of generals.

The whole affair should be the cause for the gravest concern upon the part of serious-minded, peace-loving people of our nation, not only because of their sympathy for the people of Brazil, but due to the sobering fact that leading figures in our government can endorse such a take-over.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT
Studies Made On Obesity

There are several ways to lose weight. Exercise is one, but it has limitations. It takes a lot of exercise to lose a pound, and the exercise stimulates your appetite. So, although I strongly advocate exercise for physical fitness, I cannot take it seriously as a means of reducing. This applies also to mechanical exercisers, massage and steam baths.

Dr. Brandstadt

Many persons who are obese have taken up cigarette smoking. This merely replaces one health hazard with a worse one. For that reason I would urge even an overweight person to give up smoking.

SURGICAL REMOVAL of part of the stomach was tried for a while but it was found that the patient, although he was not able to eat as much at a time, ate oftener and got the same number of calories he was taking before the operation. Then plastic surgeons tried removing the layer of fat from the abdominal wall but the end results were poor.

There are many drugs which will cause a person to lose weight. The problem, however, is not how to lose weight but how to maintain the loss. This fact is never mentioned in the glowing ads. Follow-up studies show that the weight lost is almost always regained.

Furthermore, injudicious use of these drugs can be dangerous. Amphetamine and benzphetamine act by increasing the metabolism and also by suppressing the appetite. They tend to make you jittery. But the resourceful drug manufacturers have combined them with a tranquilizer in a capsule that provides continuous action for 12 hours.

THESE DRUGS are available only on a doctor's prescription and the wise physician will give them only as a temporary crutch to be coupled with a radical change in eating habits.

No matter how hard you try to avoid it, the question of diet must be faced. A person who wishes to reduce encounters serious obstacles. At every social gathering he is offered tempting tidbits.

The dieter who can hold out for longer than four weeks is rare. This is because his loss of weight is accomplished at the expense of his feeling of security.

ALTHOUGH SOME doctors recommend crash diets, I favor gradual loss will keep you feeling well, keep the flesh from suddenly going out of your face and allow you to lose 50 to 100 pounds in a year.

Because cause of overweight is often psychological, some dieters have organized groups that work along lines similar to those of Alcoholics Anonymous. These may give the dieter the emotional support he needs and succeed where other methods have failed.

Beauty A LA MODE

BE A BEAUTY

Some women are born with beauty, others will themselves to it. What makes them beauties in the eyes of others is not only the cast of the perfection of their grooming, but the fact that they are conscious of their individuality, their personality. Beauty needs organization. This is not a job that can be tackled all at once or a job that stays put once you've tackled it. Beauty needs daily attention to go on flourishing.

Have a daily beauty routine at home regardless of how busy you are, and don't neglect professional assistance.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I are both avid Landers fans. We frequently discuss your answers and agree that you make sense.

I feel, however (and so do many of my friends), that you are biased in favor of husbands. So often you take the position that the wife is at fault when the marriage fails.

Recently you told your readers that the smart wife who really wants her marriage to work makes her husband feel like "her hero." Then you went on to suggest that she "build him up when he's down, make him feel important," and so on. I'd like to have a dime for every American male who wags that column under his wife's nose.

Now, Ann Landers, will you give us wives a break and write a column on how a man can make his wife feel like his queen? Thank you. — THE DISTAFF SIDE.

Dear Distaff: While I am busy handing out hints on how to make a husband feel like a hero I would like to add this: Show me a successful marriage and I will show you a wife who is a heroine.

The notion that a marriage is 50-50 is a lot of eyewash. It's more like 70-30 with the burden on the little woman. The successful wife must be meek as a lamb and gutty as a bear — and smart enough to know what the occasion demands.

She must be nurse, sweet-heart, cook, housekeeper, financial wizard, wailing wall, companion, friend and confidant.

The hand that rocks the cradle also holds the fate of the marriage — and any husband who doesn't know it has rocks in his head.

Dear Unfounded

Dear Ann: I'm almost ashamed to write this letter because it seems like such a foolish thing to be discussing with a stranger, but honestly it has me worried sick.

I'm 17 and going with a very nice fellow. One day I want to be married and have children but I'm scared to death of childbirth. I just don't think I could go through the pain and suffering. When I hear of a young mother who dies giving birth to a child I go into a cold sweat, whether I knew her or not.

I've tried to trace this fear back to my childhood and all I can remember is a movie I once saw where a woman in labor was suffering something awful. I had nightmares for years after that but it was a long time ago.

Am I some kind of nut? I have a feeling something is wrong with me. Please answer this letter. — AFRAID.

Dear Afraid: You're not a nut. You are frightened because you are ignorant. Most women will tell you that childbirth is one of the most thrilling and fulfilling of human experiences.

Ask your family doctor for literature. Tell him how you

Tall Girl, Short Boy

Dear Ann: I'm a regular reader and am very pleased with your sensible approach to tall girl - short boy, etc.

I'm planning to be married in June. My fiancée is the salt of the earth. I consider myself lucky to get him, even though he is 5 inches shorter than I am. He has a terrific sense of humor and just loves it when I call him "Big Daddy."

I plan to wear ballet slippers for the wedding ceremony and

I want him to wear elevator shoes. He says he'll do it to please me but he sees no point in it. What do you say? — DIANE.

Dear Diane: I know of no elevator shoes that will add 5 inches to any man's height. But if you want to go in for visual aids for the occasion — and if Big Daddy is agreeable — go ahead.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Superstitions

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Sidewalk comments of a Pavement Plato: Do you knock on wood three times to avoid bad luck?

Do you carry a silver dollar or some other object in your pocket to bring good luck?

If your answer in both cases is no, then you aren't a believer in the two most common American superstitions. But that by no means is proof you aren't superstitious.

Many people go through life without becoming religious, at least to the extent of adhering to a formal creed, but hardly any of us escape becoming devotees, consciously or unconsciously, of some of the thousands of superstitions that exist in the world.

Since the universe is large and man is small, he has sought since the dawn of his time to find some way of being less uneasy and feeling more comfortable and secure in that universe. Superstition was his first answer—the taking of some step that would either get the dark forces of destiny of his side, or at least keep their anger from destroying him.

"If you can't be for me, please don't be against me," cried ancient man—and knocked three times on a tree to placate the spirits he felt dwelt therein.

Today we still knock on wood three times at moments of possible peril, and we do it mockingly as if we were joking. But the main thing is—we still do it.

Childhood chants are full of superstition. Can't you recall skipping along the pavement as a youngster and saying "Step on a crack, and break your grandmother's back"? And when you did step on a crack, weren't you half-afraid that you have brought bodily disaster to that dear old lady?

As we grow older many of us make up fresh superstitions of our own out of the rituals of living we acquire along the way.

I know of one man who is sure everything will go wrong the rest of the day if he nicks his face while shaving. I know another who has similar premonitions of bad luck if he turns off the alarm clock with his left rather than his right hand.

Man may someday take the superstition out of science; science will probably never quite take the superstition out of man.

Western Reserve Board May Adopt New Salary Plan

BERLIN CENTER — A new teachers' salary schedule raising the minimum and maximum pay of instructors is expected to be adopted tonight at the regular meeting of the Western Reserve District Board of Education.

Supt. Maurice Jones said the new plan will help to make the system more favorably competitive with other districts commensurate in size and pupil population.

The new schedule is part of a policy revision by the board and administration to elevate the entire system of education in the Western Reserve area.

The board is also expected to hire four new teachers, make plans for seeding a football practice field at the new high school site on Route 224, purchase commercial classroom equipment, consider bids on stage curtains, and discuss the parking lot at the new school.

A representative of Smith, Buchanan & Smith, Youngstown architects, will be present at the session at 8 p.m. to present to the board a resume of progress to date on the 300-pupil high school.

although the Lodge and Nixon boosters did not specifically seek write-ins.

Percy, now board chairman of the Bell & Howell Co., made a successful start in his first try for public office by defeating State Treasurer William J. Scott, 37.

The winner also took a first step toward control of the GOP in Illinois. The triumph, in addition, gave him a position of influence among delegates to the party's national convention in July.

"I'm going to cast my vote with the majority of the delegates, and I must concede right now it is a Goldwater delegation," Percy stated.

The result of the preference primary is not binding on delegates.

Goldwater commented in Washington that the outcome demonstrates that "1964 can be a year of victory for our party."

Goldwater, coming through ahead in his first test in the Midwest, called upon all members of the party "to unite to work for the election of Republican candidates everywhere, from the state house to the White House."

Returns from 7,672 of the state's 10,256 precincts gave Goldwater 314,544. Mrs. Smith 129,669, Lodge 26,545, Nixon 14,373, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York 1,208, Gov. George Romney of Michigan 275, Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania 992, and Harold E. Stassen 44.

Lodge won on write-ins—33,521 of them—in New Hampshire, where Mrs. Smith counted 2,812 on the ballot.

Returns from 8,126 precincts for the nomination for governor gave Percy 368,827 and Scott 223,124.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower, running against two opponents in the 1956 primary, compiled 95 per cent of the preference vote. The late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, competing against two entrants on the ballot and three write-in opponents gathered 74 per cent in 1952.

Separate small groups sought write-ins for President Johnson and Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy for vice president.

Returns from 1,834 precincts gave Johnson 22,237 and Kennedy 363, and Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama 116.

The Democrats had no major contests—a factor in the relatively light turnout of voters.

East Liverpool Plant Strike Is Settled

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio (AP)—Workers were returning to their jobs today at the American Vitro Products plant here after settlement of a 10-day strike that idled 150 employees.

Plant Manager Paul Calhoun Jr. said the strike ended Tuesday but a gas leak outside the plant has slowed production. He expects all workers to return by Friday. Workers have been out since midnight April 4.

"Both sides are satisfied with the agreement reached," Calhoun said. He would not elaborate on the issues. Officials of the union, Local 849 of the United Brick and Clay Workers of America, also declined comment.

The dispute was over plant rules and "money matters."

Erie R.R. Seeks Station Closings

LISBON — The Erie Lackawanna Railroad, whose stockholders were told at their annual meeting in Cleveland yesterday that the firm's 1964 first quarter deficit will run about $3.3 million, has applied to the Ohio Public Utilities Commission for permission to close its freight stations in Lisbon, Leetonia and Canfield.

The Lisbon Chamber will protest the plan.

A public hearing on the request is scheduled May 27 at Columbus.

Closing of the station would not mean loss of rail service, only that local shippers would have to call Niles for service instead of the local agent, it is explained.

Richard K. Richards of Boardman is agent at the Canfield station, R. D. Meek the Leetonia agent, and Willis Stanley in Lisbon.

Beaver Boosters Elect McLaughlin

James McLaughlin was elected president of the Beaver Local Boosters club when members met Tuesday night.

Other officers are: Frank Copstick, Jr., vice president, and Mrs. Mildred Emmerling, corresponding secretary.

Re-elected were: Mrs. Mildred Hoppel, recording secretary, Mrs. Gale Williams, treasurer and Mrs. Leo Jenkins, correspondence. Trustees elected for a two-year term are Leslie Jones, Warren Bradley Sr., William Roberts, Mrs. Charles Smith, Robert Osborne and Steve Barobak.

Plans for the spring sports banquet on April 28 were made. Mrs. Charles Smith was appointed general chairman for the April 28 event to be held at Beaver Local High School. The club will furnish meat, rolls and beverage. A guest speaker will be named at a later date.

There will be no regular meeting on April 28 due to the banquet. Next meeting will be held May 12 at 7:30 p.m.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Robert Osborne.

or elsewhere."

The meeting honored Polish Communist party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka and Premier Jozef Cyrankiewicz, who have been visiting Moscow since Monday.

Khrushchev declared the Peking leaders had bungled their economy by trying the "great leap forward" plan for industrialization and brought hardship to their own people.

Now, he said, they are asking the Soviet people to slow down the development of their own economy and sacrifice the benefits the people here had gained. Khrushchev said he had personally cautioned Chinese party leader Mao Tse-tung against trying China's "great leap forward" saying the country was not prepared.

But he insisted he did not pursue the point to the level of interference. He said the Chinese leaders accused the Soviet leaders of refusing to move forward with the revolution.

"Forward to the grave?" he demanded sarcastically.

He said the Chinese were proceeding along the course outlined by Leon Trotsky.

"And where is Trotsky?" Khrushchev demanded. "He is rotting."

Khrushchev said the Soviet policy was to increase its productive economy and to improve the conditions of the people.

4-H Clubs

LISBON — Officers will be elected and plans for future meetings made when members of the Columbiana County 4-H Dairy Club meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the Lisbon Grange hall, west of Lisbon.

Dr. Thomas Liggett, veterinarian, will be the guest speaker. All 4-H members interested in dairy projects are asked to attend, according to Robert Lewis, county extension agent in 4-H.

COUNTY YOUTH ESCAPES

LISBON — Lester Davis, 16, of East Liverpool, who was sent Feb. 11 to the Ohio Youth Commission, escaped from the juvenile institution last week-end with two other youths from Franklin and Allen counties.

The State Highway Patrol put out a state-wide alert on the missing boys. Davis had appeared before Juvenile Court Judge Louis Tobin on several occasions.

PRESIDENT OF BRAZIL—Gen. Humberto Castello Branco was elected by congress April 11 as president of Brazil. He will serve until Jan. 31, 1966, when a full-term president is expected to be elected.

able segment of the population most seriously affected by the recent coup. This is made up of voters who gave big electoral majorities to Goulart and his Labor party.

Left-wing extremists infiltrated this powerful force. But it also sought dramatic reforms in an attempt to bring Brazil out of its social and economic stagnation.

The military recently deprived this group of most of its leaders by suspending their political rights.

Castello Branco faces a need for drastic measures to halt whirlwind inflation that has brought Brazil to the brink of economic ruin.

Interim President Paschoal Ranieri Mazzilli, the Chamber of Deputies president who succeeded Goulart, warned in a broadcast Tuesday night that Brazil's deficit for 1964 will total 1.5 trillion cruzeiros—$833.3 million at the current exchange rate.

Belgium

has mobilized about 5,700 physicians.

The situation in many parts of Belgium, however, is reaching a critical point, with hospitals overcrowded and the danger of epidemics increasing.

Strike leaders claim their emergency setup is collapsing since the government took it over. The Interior Ministry blames the strikers, accusing them of sabotage.

During the 12 days the doctors ran the emergency service, with 2,000 physicians on day and night duty, there were no reports of danger to health.

For the poorer Belgians who were emergency cases, medicine and treatment were free. There have been cases of hardship, specially for patients who wanted to be treated at home.

Hospital wards are overcrowded and patients are sent home as quickly as possible. Personal nursing attention is becoming nonexistent.

Although 3,600 military reserve doctors have been called to active duty this does not seem to help. Many come on foot, without their medical instruments.

There was talk of nurses joining the strike. But one head nurse laughed: "We have too much work to go on strike."

Since the government ordered private clinics reopened Sunday, any patient can attend them free—for the time being.

Some low-income patients find themselves in $24-a-day suites in fashionable clinics.

Following strict military regulations, some doctors are sending patients to the hospital with the slightest fever.

Military hospitals have been opened to civilians but they are reaching the saturation point. Emergency hospitals have been set up in schools and other public buildings.

Leetonia Band Club Plans Two Events

LEETONIA — A card party tonight and a dance Friday night are being sponsored by the Band Mothers club to raise money to cover expenses of the Leetonia High School band who will compete in the state band contest April 25 at Columbus.

Mrs. Lawrence Riles, Band Mothers president, said the eureka and 500 play will begin tonight at 8 at Orchard Hill School and the dance will be Friday night at 8 at the same school. The Embers, a local group of musicians, will furnish music.

Dean Cummings, instrumental music teacher, has been priming his band members for the annual Ohio band contest.

would at this point, and I do not think the participants on either side would."

The negotiators and mediators were to meet in joint session at 9 a.m., the White House said.

The emergency talks are aimed at achieving in 15 days a settlement that the government, railroads and unions have failed to obtain in nearly five years of the dispute over wage structure and working conditions.

All other procedures under the law have been exhausted, and Johnson does not now have the power to order a halt or a postponement of a strike.

The President won the 15-day postponement just before some 200,000 engineers, firemen, switchmen, conductors and brakemen were to strike on nearly 200 railroads at 12:01 a.m. last Friday.

Although the White House is maintaining control of all official information on the talks, there are indications that both industry and union sources agree it is too early to predict the outcome.

The White House re-emphasized that Johnson wants today's report so he can determine if any other steps are needed to help the collective bargaining process.

Alaska and the U.S. Northwest.

The Air Force has about 750 intercontinental ballistic missiles ready to launch while the Soviets have less than one-fourth that number in operation. That would be fewer than 187.

"We have 192 Polaris missiles deployed; the Soviets have substantially fewer submarine-launched ballistic missiles in operation."

—U.S. Polaris submarines are all nuclear-powered; only a small percentage of Soviet missile subs are atomic-run. Polaris missiles can be fired from under water; the Soviet missiles can't. Each U.S. Polaris rocket has at least a 1,500-mile range; the Soviet missiles less than 500.

As for relative bomber strength since 1961, the Pentagon statement suggested this favors the United States—that the U.S. bomber force on combat alert has increased from less than 500 then while the Soviet bomber force has stayed about the same.

Both sides had only about "a handful of intercontinental ballistic missiles or submarine-launched missiles deployed" back in January 1961, the Pentagon said.

The implication here was that both sides started at about the same place three years ago and that the United States has vaulted ahead, not slowed down.

LeMay testified before a House Appropriations subcommittee in late February. That was before a decision was made to extend his tenure as Air Force chief of staff seven months beyond the July 1 expiration date of his present term.

McNamara's associates insist relations between the two men are cordial. But there is a strong belief the decision to extend LeMay until Feb. 1 was chiefly that of President Johnson.

a one-car mishap at 4:15 p.m. on Route 164 in North Lima. The Canfield Patrol reported he came up behind halted traffic and attempted to stop. Both his foot and emergency brakes failed. The car went off the right side of the road, hitting a utility pole.

Homer Webster, 34, of RD 1, Ktningson was cited for speed excessive for conditions after a collision at 5:45 p.m. on Township Rd. 703 (Bayard Rd.), a half mile north of Route 30. Alvin Barnes, 34, of Paris slowed his car and Webster hit him in the rear. Neither was injured.

strict residents to gauge their feelings on the debated kindergarten program. This year the parents have been paying the expense of the program but the board has been furnishing classroom space. The decision on the program next year will hinge on the results of the questionnaire.

Despite the current turmoil over the centralized state bus purchasing plan, the board decided to go ahead with plans to make requisition to the state for three new buses using the old form.

Clerk Rhea Emmons was given approval to set aside funds to cover West Branch's participation in the National Defense Education Act in the 1963 - 64 year. Schools have not been notified yet for the amount to be paid.

Heacock was authorized to buy blinds to limit light in the five elementary rooms where experimental TV classes are being held.

Heacock will also investigate before the May meeting the availability of a podium for the stage before commencement and scaffold and ladder for gym work and for outside window washing.

The executive head said baccalaureate would be held May 3 at 8 p.m. in the gym followed by commencement June 1 at 8 p.m. Other end-of-year activities include the Senior Class Play April 24 and Junior-Senior Prom May 22.

The prom will start with dinner at the Hoover-Price Dining Hall on the Mt. Union College campus at 7 p.m. The group will return to the high school at 9 for the dance then go at 1 a.m. May 23 to the Mt. Union Theater for a movie.

Approval was granted by the board to a special fire course sponsored by the Homeworth and North Georgetown Fire Departments. The board underwrites the plan. The fire departments pay half the expenses and the State Department of Education, the other half.

The school will also buy two rolls of special treading to install in the bleacher aisles to give patrons better footing.

The superintendent reported that the board needs to bolster the substitute bus driver roster. Three drivers recently took jobs in industry. The custodial situation was also discussed but no action was taken.

Authority to buy drapes for the new high school building to shut out sun on the south and east sides was also granted.

A letter of gratitude from the Mahoning County Tuberculosis and Health Association was read. Students recently contributed $130 to the cause in collection containers spotted around the buildings.

The science program to be given at the high school by the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. April 22 was announced.

The following school calendar, covering 180 days, was adopted:

First six weeks, Sept. 8 to Oct. 16; Sept. 8, teachers' meeting, 9:30 a.m.; second six weeks, Oct. 19 to Dec. 4; Oct. 30, school dismissed for NEOTA convention; Nov. 26-27, Thanksgiving vacation; third six weeks, Dec. 7 to Jan. 22; Dec. 24 through Jan. 3, Christmas vacation.

Fourth six weeks, Jan. 25 to March 5; fifth six weeks, March 8 to April 23; April 15-16, Easter vacation; April 21, MCEA meeting, no school; sixth six weeks, April 26 to June 4; June 7, grades, reports and check-out; June 8, report cards.

Shop teachers Vance Krauss and Horace Sheffer gave detailed reports of the proceedings at the state industrial arts instructors' convention in Columbus recently.

He will succeed Mrs. Jay Eells.

Other new officers are: Vice President, Mrs. James Hillberry; Secretary, Mrs. Ralph Apple; Treasurer, Mrs. Richard Rudibaugh; delegates and alternates to County Council, Mrs. John Woodburn, Jerry Foreman, John Booth and Herbert Martin.

Hubert Laurence spoke on "Child Guidance" and Mrs. Charles Carlisle's room gave a demonstration on Indian dances. Mrs. Carlisle's room also won the attendance banner. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Maurer's room. Judge Louis Tobin will be the speaker for next month's meeting.

The PTA voted to purchase dictionaries for Mrs. Carl Maurer's fourth grade room. They will also donate $25 for the "Dollars for Scholars Fund."

The date for the Elkton School auction has been changed to May 14. This event is being sponsored by the school. Proceeds will be used to purchase a thermofax machine.

Mrs. Jack Brooks and daughter Janet Lynn of Colorado Springs, Colo., are spending several months in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith. Mr. Brooks has been transferred to California where he will take part in army field maneuvers.

Membership Class of the Elkton Methodist Church will have a field trip Saturday. They will visit churches in Youngstown.

and the leaping of fish in the streams, to coat the leaves with a deadly film, and to linger on in the soil—all this though the intended target may be only a few weeds or insects. Can anyone believe it is possible to lay down such a barrage of poisons on the surface of the earth without making it unfit for all life?"

Miss Carson's book, which ironically also warned of the hazards of man-made cancer-producing substances, was criticized by some, including pesticide industry chemists, as presenting an incomplete picture. Manufacturers and trade associations defended the safety of pesticides "when used as directed."

After learning of her death, Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall heaped praise on Miss Carson in a statement. He said she "was the kind of woman who makes men proud, a scientist of rare courage and ability, and a world-renowned author whose eye was trained to the destiny of generations she would never see."

Miss Carson first became concerned with chemical weed-and-insect killers while working as a biologist with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

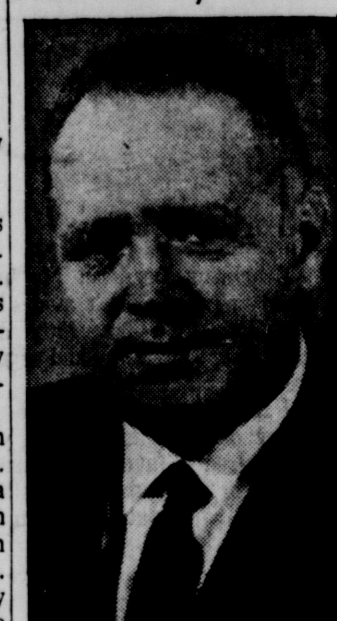

Born in Springdale, Pa., she received a bachelor's degree at Pennsylvania College for Women and a master's degree at Johns Hopkins University.

Miss Carson never married but adopted a grandnephew, Roger Christie, now 10. The only other survivor is her brother, Robert M. Carson of Silver Spring.

Deadly Game

Prank With Gun Ends In Death for Young Man

VANDALIA, Ohio (AP)—"He pointed the gun at me and clicked it twice. I didn't think anything about it. He was always kidding around."

Don Sheer, a 17-year-old stockboy at the PDQ Supermarket here, was describing a game that his boss, James Rosenfeld, was playing in his office Tuesday night.

"Then he opened the gun up and showed me the bullet. He said the next one would have been mine."

But the next bullet wasn't Sheer's. It was Rosenfeld's. The 23-year-old manager put the gun to his head and pulled the trigger. A shot rang out. By the time officials arrived, Rosenfeld was dead.

Rosenfeld's game began earlier, officials said, when Rosenfeld pointed the gun at another employee, Dave Seitz, 17, and pulled the trigger.

"I don't think the gun was loaded then," said Teddy Joe Laughter, 20, a friend of Rosenfeld's.

Later, Sheer went into the office and Rosenfeld pulled the gun from his apron. After Rosenfeld played the game with him, Sheer said, and told him the next bullet would be his:

"I got out then. I ducked behind a wooden partition, but he said that wouldn't do any good."

Rosenfeld again pulled the trigger but nothing happened. Sheer said Rosenfeld apparently had spun the cylinder and the hammer struck on an empty chamber.

The game was halted by the ring of a telephone. Rosenfeld answered it but the call was for the cashier, said Laughter, who was standing near by.

"He put the phone down," Laughter said, "and just put the gun up to his head and it went off."

There were five bullets in Rosenfeld's hand when officials found him, they said. He had apparently removed them from the gun before beginning the game.

The store was open at the time, but customers were unaware of what was going on because Rosenfeld and the others were in his office, officials said.

Rosenfeld was the son of the owner of the store, Gene Rosenfeld.

TO HEAR ARGUMENTS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Utilities Commission was to hear arguments today from some of the cities opposing the East Ohio Gas Co.'s $35 million annual rate increase proposal. The rate increase would affect 108 communities in Knox, Holmes, Medina, Columbiana, Portage, Tuscarawas, Stark, Trumbull, Mahoning, Wayne, Summit, Geauga and Cuyahoga counties.

The state flag of California is patterned after the famous Bear Flag adopted by the Americans who revolted against Mexico in 1846. The brown bear on the flag symbolizes the determination of the settlers to fight for independence.

THREATENS TO RESIGN

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—The president of the Portsmouth Board of Education, Dr. Otto F. Apel, has threatened to resign if his brother is not rehired as Portsmouth High School's football coach. Apel made the threat after the board Tuesday night decided to table for further study renewal of William Apel's contract.

William Apel has been coach one year. His contract has expired and the board is considering a new two-year agreement. Otto Apel, saying that the board had not given his brother "a good enough run for the money," said he would resign today if the contract is not renewed.

Cleveland Police Break Up Vice Ring

CLEVELAND (AP) — Police say the arrest of five men and two 15-year-old girls has broken up a vice ring operating in two large east side residential hotels.

Deputy Inspector Gerald J. Rademacher said Tuesday night that a routine check by fifth district vice detectives uncovered activities of the ring, which has been involved in prostitution, sex orgies and possibly blackmail for the last eight months.

Detectives still are seeking three alleged ringleaders and several prostitutes. The two girls and two east side men, 21 and 24, were arrested Sunday at one of the hotels. Two more men were apprehended Monday and the fifth was picked up Tuesday.

Ohio Not Getting Fair Tax Refund, Two Experts Say

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The federal government is not giving Ohio a fair refund on unemployment taxes, two experts say.

Dr. James C. Yocum, an Ohio State University economist, said that from 1936 to 1963 Ohio got back only 56.8 per cent of the unemployment taxes collected from employers. By comparison, he said, California received 86.6 per cent and New York 86.7 per cent.

Yocum made his accusation in an article in the current issue of the Ohio State Bureau of Business Research "Bulletin."

"Ohio was 48th among the states in the ratio of allocation to taxes collected," Dr. Yocum said. The only states worse off, he added, were Wisconsin (49th), Illinois (50th) and Indiana (51st). The District of Columbia was included in Yocum's figures.

Willard P. Dudley, administrator of the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, agreed with Yocum's findings.

"This has been a long and bitter problem for Ohio," Dudley said. He said he thinks Washington's method of figuring allocations "needs an overhauling."

Giants Get Duke Snider From Mets

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The suffering never ends for Brooklyn's orphaned baseball fans.

Old wounds, six years in healing after Walter O'Malley separated the faithful from their Dodgers, have reopened. Duke Snider, the pride of Flatbush, has gone over to the still-hated Giants.

Snider, 37, was acquired by the Giants—San Francisco vintage—from the New York Mets in a straight cash deal Tuesday.

The silver-haired slugger may start alongside Willie Mays, another New York folk hero who went West, in the San Francisco outfield tonight when the Giants meet the Milwaukee Braves on the West Coast.

Old-time Dodgers fans and "New Breed" Met rooters were dismayed by the second passing of the Duke. But Snider welcomed the move and the Giants, who have been after the veteran for some time, were equally happy.

"You're just what we need to win the (National League) pennant," Horace Stoneham, Giants president, told Snider via telephone after the deal was announced.

"Just the opportunity to play with a contender again should add a couple of years to my career," Snider said before leaving for San Francisco. "I think I can help the Giants. I think I can play quite a few games for them."

"I never rooted for the Giants before—except in a World Series, but I'm sure rooting for them now."

Snider came to the Mets a year ago after 16 seasons with the Dodgers in Brooklyn and Los Angeles. He appeared in 129 games in 1963, frequently as a pinch hitter, and batted .243 with 14 home runs and 45 runs batted in.

Snider has hit 403 career homers, 10th highest total in history, and takes a .296 lifetime batting average to San Francisco.

The Giants, loaded with right-handed power, plan to use the left-handed hitting Snider primarily in pinch hitting roles.

"With Snider available, opposing teams might not be so quick to switch to a right-handed pitcher," San Francisco Manager Al Dark, said Tuesday.

will entertain Boardman at 4 p.m. The meet, originally set for 7:30 p.m., has been moved up so that members of the Spartans' team can take part in a choral concert the same evening.

Veteran seniors John Tarleton and Larry Earley were double winners for the Quakers.

EARLEY WON the shot put with a toss of 46 feet, 10½ inches. He got stiff opposition from teammates Jeff McArtor, who finished second with a throw of 45 feet, 8 inches; and Bill Hart, who heaved the iron ball 45 feet, four inches.

After the event was over, Hart got off a toss of 46 feet, 4 inches.

In the discus throw, Earley's winning toss was 125 feet, 2 inches.

Salem's John Tarleton was a second under his best outdoor time in the mile run this season. He covered the distance in 4:41.1. He was clocked in 4:40 against Alliance last Friday.

Yesterday Tarleton also took a first in the 880-yard run in 2:06.9.

PETE NOLLIER is providing added strength in the dashes for Salem. He may be the top sprint star before the campaign ends. The hard working senior was first in the century in 10.5.

He defeated teammates Tim Hutson and Dave Fleischer, who finished second and third, respectively.

The Quakers' mile relay team was pushed a bit yesterday and Salem came in with its best time of the season 3:39.8.

Members of the unit were Dave Coy, Tom Hutson, Reed Wilson and Art Spack.

Sophomore Charles Alexander is making great strides in the high jump. He gave Salem a tie in the event when he cleared the bar at 5 feet, 4 inches.

Marlington's Bill Fisher made the same height. Nollier of the Quakers finished third.

The Quakers swept the first three places in the 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, shot put, and broad jump.

Barons Start Calder Cup Series At Quebec Tonight

PAGE 12 WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15, 1964

Barons Start Calder Cup Series At Quebec Tonight

It's two down and one to go for the battling Cleveland Barons—but the "one" remaining is apt to pose its share of problems.

Victorious over the Rochester Americans and Hershey Bears in the quarter-finals and semi-finals of the American Hockey League's Calder Cup play-offs, the Barons now must face the AHL champion Quebec Aces in the finals for the playoff title.

While Cleveland was polishing off Rochester in two straight games and Hershey in three straight encounters, Quebec was disposing of the Pittsburgh Hornets, four games to one, to qualify for the finals.

Cleveland has not won a Calder Cup title since the 1956-57 season, but has eight playoff championships to its credit over a 27-year span. Quebec, in the playoff series for the first time, naturally never has won a Calder Cup championship.

SHOULD THE BARONS go all the way and annex their ninth playoff title, they would become the first team in AHL history to win nine playoff games in one season.

The final playoff series starts in Quebec on Wednesday, April 15, at 8:15 p.m., with the second game scheduled for Quebec on Sunday, April 19, at 2:30 p.m.

The series shifts to Cleveland for the next two games on Wednesday, April 22, and Saturday, April 25, both games at 8 p.m.

The fifth game, if necessary, will be in Quebec on Monday, April 27; the sixth, if necessary, in Cleveland on Wednesday, April 29, and the seventh, if necessary, in Quebec on Saturday, May 2.

Under the leadership of Coach Fred Glover, who has been playing under the handicap of a pulled leg muscle, the Barons wasted no time in disposing of Rochester and Hershey in the minimum number of games.

The siege guns in the series against Rochester and Hershey were the members of the so-called second line composed of center Joe Szura, right winger Ray Kinasewich and left winger Ray Brunel.

WITH A MINIMUM of four games facing him, barring injury, Szura has an excellent chance of setting two new AHL records before the playoffs are over. He now is within one goal of Wally Hergesheimer's record of 11 playoff goals in one season, set in 1950-51.

Szura's line has accounted for 18 of 26 Barons goals, Szura netting 10 and Brunel and Kinasewich accounting for four each.

Szura's 15 points to date put him within reach of the playoff record of 20 points in one season, held jointly by Zello Toppazzini of Providence in 1955-56 and John McKenzie of Buffalo in 1962-63.

Both Brunel and Kinasewich have amassed 11 playoff points, each on the strength of four goals and seven assists.

While this line has led the attack, it has received able help from the first unit of Glover, Ron Attwell and Jim Mikol and from the third unit of Cecil Hoekstra, Bob Ellett and Guy Rousseau.

All three lines have backchecked brilliantly to ease the job of the defense, which has been tremendous. Ted Harris and Dick Mattiussi have teamed together, with Larry Zeidel working with Bill Needham to hold the opposition to eight goals in five games.

Rookie Jean - Guy Morissette, in goal, has turned in a brilliant job and will continue to hold the fort unless regular goalie Les Binkley should indicate he is ready to return to action.

Quebec has a powerful team in the nets; Doug Harvey, Jim Morrison, John Hanna, Jean Gauthier and Frank Martin head the defense corps, and Wayne Hicks, Cleland Mortonson, Bill Dineen, Bill Sutherland, Terry Gray, Leon Rochefort, Cliff Pennington and Ed Hoekstra are outstanding forwards.

Wagner, Held Blast Homers Tribe Loses 7-6; Strickland Pleased With Offensive Punch

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians lost the season opener, but their offensive punch had acting manager George Strickland smiling after the game.

"We played a good offensive game," said Strickland after the Indians lost, 7-6, to the Minnesota Twins Tuesday for their fifth straight home-opener defeat. "I sure was happy to see us score those runs. We're going to be all right."

The Tribe's 10-hit attack included home runs by Leon Wagner and Woodie Held.

Wagner, obtained from the Los Angeles Angels in a winter trade, drove in four runs. He had a single and a walk in addition to his fourth inning homer deep into the lower right field stands with two runners on base.

Earl Battey got the only home run for the Twins, who led the American League in homers last season with 225. It was off Jim Grant, who started for the Indians and pitched 4 2-3 innings.

Three pitchers followed Grant, but when asked about his mound staff following the game Strickland said he was not worried about the pitching.

Rich Rollins' single in the sixth inning drove in two runs that brought the Twins from behind for the victory. Jim Roland, a young left-hander, then pitched four innings of hitless relief to preserve the decision for Jim Perry, the third Minnesota pitcher.

Rollins' game-winning single off Pedro Ramos followed a pair of walks charged to Jerry Walker.

The Indians have no games scheduled today or tomorrow, but will work out at the stadium either Dick Donovan or Jack Kralick will pitch against the Kansas City Athletics here Friday night.

Tigers' 12 Hit Assault Routs A's 7-3; Orioles Triumph 5-3

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The baseball season is just one day old and Charles O. Finley already has had two setbacks.

The American League torpedoed his "Pennant Porch" in Kansas City last week and the Tigers went to work on his ball club in Detroit Tuesday.

The results were the same. Municipal Stadium has half a porch and the Tigers left just about that much of the Athletic pitching staff intact after a 7-3 Opening-Day victory.

Detroit's new-look Tigers were something to see but it wasn't a pleasant sight for Finley. The key executives were Jerry Lumpe and Dave Wicksham, who wore the Kelly green and gold Athletic uniforms a year ago.

Finley swapped Lumpe, an infielder, and pitchers Wicksham and Ed Rakow for slugger Rocky Colavito and hurler Bob Anderson during the winter and off the first day's results, the Tigers came out way ahead.

Lumpe stroked a single, double and triple as the Tigers punished three Kansas City pitchers with a 12-hit assault. Wicksham came on in the ninth inning as the A's staged a later rally. After an error and a walk, he got Gino Cimoli to end it.

Colavito, meanwhile, went 0-for-4.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Baltimore Orioles got long-ball power with three home runs to trip the Chicago White Sox 5-3 and the Minnesota Twins and Cleveland Indians staged a slugfest with the Twins winning 7-6. The Yankees and Boston Red Sox were rained out in New York and Washington and Los Angeles were not scheduled.

Norm Cash and Bill Bruton homered for the Tigers and Jim Gentile and pinch hitter Manny Jimenez connected for Kansas City.

Boog Powell crashed a two-run homer in the eighth inning for the Orioles' victory over the White Sox. Starter Gary Peters was breezing until John Orsino homered in the sixth and pinch hitter Joe Gaines wiped out a 3-2 White Sox lead with a homer in the seventh.

Luis Aparicio's triple greeted relief pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm in the eighth and then Powell's homer won it for the Birds. Stu Miller was the winner in relief.

Willie Mays Hits 2 Home Runs

LA's Koufax Hurls Shutout At Cards; Cubs Dump Bucs 8-4; Giants Romp 8-4

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
When Sandy Koufax was interrupted last fall...
That's right, the Dodgers didn't took up Tuesday night where he left off last season, turning in one of his shutout specialties as Los Angeles opened defense of its National League championship by whipping St. Louis 4-0.

There were 50,451 in Dodger Stadium — the largest of the opening day crowds — when Koufax began to whip an assortment of fast balls and curves out of his effortless motion. And when it was over, he had fittingly pitched the first shutout in the National League.

Koufax, a 25-game winner last year with 11 shutouts marked alongside his name, allowed the Cardinals only six hits, struck out five and walked none while winning his eighth consecutive game and recording his 18th victory in the last 20 regular season decisions.

But the 1963 World Series hero had to share some of the spotlight with towering Frank Howard, baseball's reluctant player.

The Dodgers' main power-provider, Howard proved it by tagging a 420-foot, two-run homer that capped the victory.

In other NL openers, Willie Mays collected two of San Francisco's five homers in an 8-4 walloping of Milwaukee, Roy Sievers' three-run homer powered Philadelphia to a 5-3 victory over the New York Mets and Billy Williams' two-run homer in the 10th inning led the Chicago Cubs to an 8-4 triumph over Pittsburgh.

Houston and Cincinnati, who opened play Monday, were not scheduled.

The Dodgers scored in the sixth against Ernie Broglio when Willie Davis singled, stole second and scored on Ron Fairly's single. That was enough for Koufax, but Jim Gilliam singled home another run in the seventh and then Howard wrapped it up in the eighth.

Mays hit a two-run homer in the third and finished off Warren Spahn with a solo shot in the eighth that chased the Braves' 42-year left-hander.

Jim Hart, Orlando Cepeda and Tom Haller also homered for the Giants, who broke a 4-4 tie in the sixth on Cepeda's single, a wild pitch and a single by Haller. Juan Marichal, 25-8 last year, was the winner on a seven-hitter.

The Phillies pulled out front in the first as Roy Sievers hammered a homer off Al Jackson following a pair of walks. Bobby Wine's run-producing single in the second and a run-scoring double by rookie Richie Allen in the eighth closed out the scoring.

West Branch to Name New Coaches Apr. 28

"C-Day" at West Branch High School is two weeks away. By April 28, if plans proceed on schedule, the new football and basketball coach should be known, according to executive head Clinton Heacock.

By that date the coach screening committee, headed by Heacock, expects to have a select roster of three football and three basketball coaches, ready for presentation to the Board of Education who will make the final choice upon the recommendation of the five-member committee.

Sixteen of 40 applicants for the football coaching job have been interviewed by the committee. While most of them hold head or assistant grid coaching positions from scattered points over Ohio, others have applied from Pennsylvania, West Virginia and from away as Wisconsin.

At least one highly respected Columbian County grid mentor is among the applicants, it has been learned.

Heacock said about 24 coaches have applied for the basketball coaching position but interviews will not begin until Thursday night. However, a decision on both is hoped for as soon as possible so that the teaching regime can be established for the 1964-65 year. Both coaches at West Branch instruct in the classroom beside performing their duties on gridiron or hardwood courts.

Monday is the closing date for applications for both posts, Heacock said.

The new grid coach will replace Ron Dierks and the new basketball coach will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Joe Tucker. Both men have remained on the instructional staff since their March resignations.

Screening coaches besides the executive head are Tucker, Principal Ramon Scott, and board members Leland Glass and Glenn Moffett.

MEET THE BOY WITH THE MAGNETIC PERSONALITY . . .

Neither men nor boys are 'born leaders.' The traits of true leadership must be learned, then cultivated and used for the greatest benefit of society. And there is no better way to begin than through a newspaperboy business.

A newspaperboy meets people; he learns to like them and understand them. As he organizes his own time and efforts, he learns to organize and manage others. In selling his service and his product to his customers, he learns how to put over his point of view effectively. He takes pride in his ability to serve others. Gradually, but surely, as he succeeds in his business, he develops qualities of leadership which attract others, win their loyalty and cooperation.

A magnetic personality is all the "pull" a good newspaperboy needs!

with a NEWSPAPER BUSINESS of his own and his parents behind him a GREAT FUTURE lies ahead

Pizza Potatoes For Filling Snack

Gather together a group of high school girls and guys and you'll think the "crowd" is composed of several army regiments, if it's your job to feed them all. You'll need a bountiful supply, and then some, of snack foods to keep pace with these young appetites.

Frozen French fried potatoes suit both the tastes of the teens and your needs of quick and easy snack food to a "T". At the next party, try this novel recipe that uses the frozen fries as a base for pizza.

Served with milk or a carbonated beverage and a tray of crisp vegetable relishes, these pizzas make for mighty tasty eating! Best of all, they're easy to do, no problem for you or your son or daughter to prepare.

TEEN'S PIZZA POTATOES

2 1-pound packages frozen French fries, 2 8-ounce packages sliced Mozzarella cheese, 1 8-ounce can seasoned tomato sauce, Salama, Pepperoni, smoked sausage or cooked sausage, cut up Oregano or chili powder.

Arrange frozen French fries in a single layer in a 15 1/2 x 10 1/2 x 1-inch pan. Lay sliced Mozzarella cheese over potatoes. Spread with tomato sauce. Sprinkle cut up meat over all. Season with oregano or chili powder.

Bake at 450 deg. for 15 to 20 minutes. Cut into squares and 8 servings.

Cooking Is Fun

By Cecily Brownstone

TOSSED CHICKEN SALAD

One cup cubed cooked chicken (white meat), 2 cups torn romaine, 1/2 of a medium cucumber, pared and thinly sliced, 1 shallot, or green onion (scallion), thinly sliced, 2 tablespoons olive oil, 1 tablespoon wine vinegar, seasoning salt, salt and pepper to taste. Toss together all the ingredients. Serve at once. Makes 2 large servings.

CHERRY CRUMB DESSERT

Three-fourths cup butter or margarine, 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar, 2 teaspoons vanilla, 1 1/2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon baking soda, 3/4 cup quick-cooking oatmeal, 1 cup flaked coconut, 3/4 cup pecans, chopped, 1 can (about 1 pound, 6 ounces) cherry pie filling, 1 teaspoon prepared ground lemon peel or grated fresh to taste.

Cream butter, sugar and vanilla. Sift together flour, salt and baking soda. Stir into the creamed mixture, then stir in oatmeal to make a crumb mixture. Stir in coconut and pecans.

Spread half of the crumb mixture over bottom of a greased 12 by 8-inch pan. Spoon cherry pie filling over crumbs; spread evenly. Sprinkle with lemon peel. Dot top with remaining crumbs.

Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 25 to 35 minutes. Serve warm with vanilla ice cream or whipped cream. Makes 12 servings.

MEAT TURNOVERS

1 cup finely diced leftover roast meat, 3/4 cup thick meat gravy, 1 can (3 ounces) sliced mushrooms, drained, 2 tablespoons instant onion, 1 package (10 ounces) pie crust mix.

Mix together the meat, gravy, mushrooms and onion. Make up the pastry according to package directions; divide in half; roll out each half into an 8 by 8-inch square; cut each square into four 4-inch squares.

Place a portion of the meat mixture at one side of each square; fold over; press edges together with fork tines to seal; prick top of pastry in several places to vent.

Bake on ungreased cookie sheet in a hot (425 degrees) oven about 20 minutes or until lightly browned. Serve hot. Makes 8 turnovers.

Ever use stewed tomatoes instead of regular canned tomatoes when preparing Swiss Steak? Extra flavor!

Ham Slices With Apple Mixture

Current-glazed ham slices with apple-raisin-nut filling are a good entree for entertaining a few guests when a whole ham would be too large. Its elegant combination of textures and flavors are easy to achieve.

Canned pie filling with raisins and nuts make the filling, and current jelly spiced with horseradish and mustard make the glaze. It's also easy to serve. Complete the menu with a green vegetable such as fresh asparagus or green beans with almonds, corn sticks or hot rolls, chilled relishes, and top it off with strawberry sundaes.

Combine pie filling, raisins After 30 minutes' baking time, and pecans; mix. Place 1 ham remove cover and baste ham slice in lightly greased shallow slices with glaze at 10 minute baking pan. Spread filling over intervals. Yield: 6 servings.

Be glad you have the No-Cold-Spot Heat—GAS

No need to worry about cold feet or chills for this young explorer . . . not with a good gas heating system. With gas heat, warm fresh air gently flows to every corner of every room. No cold spots. And because the basement is heated, floors are warm.

With gas, just one thermostat can control heat for the entire house. Individual room heating is old-fashioned. You don't need it with economical gas. What's more, it's easy to convert a modern, forced-air gas heating system to whole-house air conditioning. Just add a compact gas cooling unit to your present gas furnace.

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise: I'm the mother of a new baby, and I found that every evening I would collapse with a backache. The reason was that I carried a heavy diaper pail full of water and disinfectant (ad diapers) from the ury to the wash machine each day.

So I bought a small metal wagon, lined it with a plastic bag from the cleaners, and put an inexpensive covered diaper pail in it. I keep the wagon and pail in the closet in the baby's room. When the pail is full I simply pull the wagon to the washing machine.

Now the only lifting I do is from the wagon to the washer. Later my child can enjoy the wagon, but right now his mother does! Sure saves my back.

MRS. R. E. WARDLOW, DEAR HELOISE: I wonder if you can tell me how to remove the mineral accumulation on the inside of a glass vaporizer caused by hard water. What do you clean it with?

GERALDINE MacDONALD.

DEAR GERALDINE: One night while filling my glass vaporizer in the bathroom, I discovered that I was out of scouring powder, so I tried the combination of salt and soda that we use to brush our teeth. I put some of this on a wash cloth and scrubbed ... lo and behold the rough white accumulated film came off!

If the accumulation on your vaporizer is very thick you might use lots of salt with a bit of soda added, and try scouring it with a piece of steel wool.

Before re-connecting the vaporizer be sure to RINSE WELL because some manufacturers say "do not use salt" and others say "do not use soda". Why? I have two identical vaporizers from the same company and one says exactly the opposite of the other! Can anyone explain this?

Write to me c-o this paper and let me know.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I keep my bottle of frosted nail polish mixed and ready to use by tightening the lid and laying it on its side in a drawer I use frequently.

Each time I open the drawer the bottle rolls around and mixes the frosty substance with the polish.

HELEN SINDLINGER.

DEAR HELOISE: I keep my little girl's hair ribbons wound around two large metal hair rollers! They stay unwrinkled and neat in the drawer. A hairpin holds them in place.

JANET. DEAR HELOISE: I have a suggestion for Heloise's suggestions.

As each item is clipped from the newspaper, tape it immediately to the item it is intended for, such as instant coffee jar, pancake box, glass jar, vinegar bottle, etc. In this way than if it had been filed away.

An amusing note: The kerosene can and the vinegar bottle will look as if they have chicken feathers with all the notes fluttering around them! But, oh, it is so nice to find your hint right where it is needed and quickly.

MRS. J. B. M.

DEAR HELOISE: I have learned to grease pie pans with shortening before placing the pastry in them. This keeps the pie from sticking to the pan and insures easier removal of the pie slices.

Also, if I'm in too big a hurry to brush the top of the pie crust with melted butter or beaten eggs, I just brush on some milk! This makes a pretty brown crust as you would ever want.

Carla, you're right. Both hints are true.

HELOISE.

Heloise welcomes all mail, especially household hints which she can pass on to readers as space permits. She receives daily, Heloise is unable to answer all individual readers' questions in her column whenever possible.

BANQUET SPEAKER CINCINNATI (AP) — Postmaster General John A. Gronouski will address a banquet Saturday night of the three-day convention of the Indiana, Kentucky and Ohio National League of Postmasters. About 800 postmasters are expected to attend the convention, opening Thursday.

Highway Job Potential Cited by Gov. Rhodes

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes says the construction of highways is one of the "strongest points for providing new jobs in Ohio."

Speaking at Canton's "Industrial Appreciation Week" dinner Tuesday night, the governor said the present highway construction program and "the additional $500 million" will expand Ohio's economic condition and provide thousands of jobs. He referred to the $500 million bond issue for highway construction being presented to the voters this year.
